

WYOMING GAME AND FISH

WE WANT YOUR INPUT

ON THE WHISKEY MOUNTAIN BIGHORN SHEEP HERD

The Wyoming Game and Fish Department (WGFD) in partnership with the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation, the National Bighorn Sheep Interpretive Center, and the University of Wyoming's Ruckelshaus Institute is engaging in a public involvement process to explore management concerns, issues, and opportunities for the Whiskey Mountain Bighorn Sheep herd, which has been declining.

GIVE US YOUR THOUGHTS AT ANY OR ALL OF THESE MEETINGS:

All meetings are from 6-9 p.m. at the Headwaters Arts and Conference Center (20 Stalnaker St.) in Dubois.

February 11

Public workshop to summarize the situation assessment and exploration of issues.

March 14 — Bighorn Sheep Summit

Public meeting and discussion with experts about technical and scientific information regarding disease, predation, habitat and other aspects of this bighorn sheep herd.

April 3

Public workshop to craft solutions to improve herd conditions.

June 5

Public workshop to present draft strategy for public input, discussion, and refinement.

All funding for this project has been secured by the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation
